New Yorks One Shy in Their Game in St. Louis.

The champions are having their troubles on the road, again coming to grief yesterday, this time in St. Louis. They have lost six out of nine games in the West, not a pennant clip by any means, though their long lead and recuperative powers are expected to prevent them from losing a serious amount of ground. They fell below the .700 mark in percentage yesterday. The Pittsburgs, too, are meeting with frequent reverses and were blanked by the Quakers. The Brook-lyns proved a snap for the reinvigorated Chicagos, and the Cincinnatis beat Boston in a ten inning mix-up. The results:

ST. LO IS (N. L.), 5; NEW TORE (N. L.), 4. St. Louis, June 15.-The New Yorks dropped the first game of the series to St. l, uis to-day. It was hotly contested from opening to closing, and was a sec-saw, the Cardinals winning out in the ninth. A stupid play y Dahlen in the fifth was directly responsible for the final result, as he held run past him to the tag when he could have touched Grady with scarce an effort. Grady scored on the next out. Dahlen was very weak at short, so much so that Taylor kicked when he allowed Beckley's grounder to go by him without even attempting to stop the ball. The score:

AUTOMOBILES

The first big yearling sale of the year was held at the Fasig-Tipton sales paddock, opposite the Sheepshead Bay racetrack yesterday, when the yearlings belonging to James B. Haggin were offered. As some of the best horses in America come from this sale many horsemen and breeders were in attendance, while a big crowd stopped on the way to the track.

While the stock that was put up yesterday was not as good as that of last year, the bidding at times was spirited and fairly good prices were realized. The star of the sale was a bay or brown colt by imp. Watercress—Braw Lass, who was knocked down to Newton Bennington for $3,700. Mr. Bennington also purchased the son of Star Ruby—Aura II. for $3,500. The half sister of Huratbourne was sold to Newton Bennington for $2,200. ELMINA II. WINS FIRST RACE.

NEW SCHOONER DOES WELL IN NEW YORK Y. C. REGATTA.

Finishes Ahead of Corona Over a 19 1-2 Mile Course-Race Sailed in Light Wind-Yankee Defeats Mineola and Captures Bennett Cup-Other Winners.

F. F. Brewster's new schooner yacht Elmina 11., just from her builder's yard in Boston, made her first appearance in a race yesterday in the annual regatta of the New York Yacht Club, which was sailed on the Sound. She raced against Arthur F. Luke's Corona and James B. Ford's Katrina and finished first. The Elmina II. was built from designs by A. Cary Smith, who has turned out so many two stickers, and the veterar designer was on board to give his advice in his boat's maiden race.

The Elmina is a very handsome craft. She bigger in every way than the Corona and as she improves she will probably make a he record during the season. Many who saw the hoat expressed regret that Morton F. Plant's schooner Ingomar is not in commission. Mr. Plant watched the races from the deck of his new steam yacht Venetia, and it may be that his sporting blood was stirred and he may have the Ingomar out yet. The Elmina was sailed by Capt Dennis. She got a good start, but a few minutes later had to stop for some minutes for some mishap and the Corona took the The Elmina caught the Corona on the last leg of the course and finished three minutes 41 seconds ahead. She did her best

The 70 footers Yankee and Mineola had a hot race. It was nip and tuck over the first two legs of the course and as they hauled on the wind the Mineola led. Mr. Maxwell sailed the Yankee and won the race by 2 minutes 14 seconds. The Mira, sailed by C. Lane Poor, won in the next class, beating the Mimosa III. and Joker. Fourteen of the new 30 footers started and the race was won by W. D. Guthrie's Maid of Meudon. Newbury D. Lawton's Banzai was second and bury D. Lawton's Banzai was second and A. H. and J. W. Alker's Alera was third. It was the fifty-ninth annual regatta of the club and was the first time the annual event has been sailed on the Sound. The original clubhouse of the New York Yacht Club, which use to stand at Elysian Fields, Hoboken, is now the club station at Glen Cove, and if the spirits of those ardent yachtsmen who organized the club many years ago still haunt the old home they must have been pleased with the inspiring contests of yesterday's regatta.

pleased with the Justinian torday's regatia.

A big fleet of yachts, as usual, followed the racers. Among the boats noticed were Commodore Frederick G. Bourne's Colonia, Morton F. Plant's Venetia, Walter Jenning's Rock and Morton F. Plant's Venetia, Walter Jenning's Rock and Rock a

Coney Island Handleap and Dalsy Stakes

The card offered by the Coney Island Jockey Club to-day is very good and some excellent racing should be seen. There class of horses entered they may prove very interesting. In the Coney Island Handicap, interesting. In the Coney Island Handicap, six furlongs on the main track, Hamburg i elle is asked to pick up 124 pounds, but in spite of this she may be successful. Roseben Broadcloth (who is very good at present) redouin and Gamara may be close up at the finish.

In the Daisy Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs on the turf, Beaufort and Nostromo from R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, stable, should be fighting it out at the end, with Mary F., Belle of Pequest and Lancastrian well up.

In the first race, which is for maiden two-year-old fillies, at five furlongs, the best two-year-old of the year may be seen. Queen of Hearts, the full sister of Artful, last year's Futurity winner, makes her first appearance. She is reported to be in good condition. Watergrass is a very fast filly and may be near the winner at the finish. The handicap, one mile and a sixteenth on the turf, looks to be between Outcome, Kehailan, Dandelion and Colonial Girl.

Druid, Chieftain and Jonquil look the best in the fifth race, while in the second event, Champlain, Pronta and Incubator may divide the money.

The cricket team of the streamship Lucania play against the Brooklyn Club, and put up a good game, although eventually losing by is runs. Batting first, the sailors ran up a total of 58 runs before they were disposed of. T. Cain batted well for 23 and proved to be the mainstay of the batting, but the three bowlers tried-MacKeller, Asquith and Cording-ail were successful and obtained good analyses. For Brooklyn H. Poyer, G. Laurie, J. H. Tattersan and A. E. Tyrrill scored double figure unings, and the last named was "not out" at call of time. The totals: Steamship Lucania, 58: Brookly v, 76.
